Letter from the President - December 2015

This November I celebrated Thanksgiving not once, not twice, but THREE times! My son and I went out of town early in the week and had the best smoked turkey I have ever eaten. Back in town for Thanksgiving on Thursday, we had pulled pork and BBQ ribs. Yes...pork. While smoked turkey and pork are extremely untraditional, it seems like ...

Facility Manager Mishaps

In the News

Food for Thought

On a previous job, I had a supervisor with a very cultured childhood and a passion for food. Once a week the office would go to a new restaurant to try a new cuisine. We ate Thai, Indian, Mediterranean, Egyptian, Australian, Chinese, Russian, American, Mexican and everything in between. Our supervisor encouraged us to order something that we'd never tried ...
