Letter from the President - October 2016

It's officially Fall and I relayed last month that things are getting busy here at IFMA Atlanta and kudos to our committees for bringing our vision to life. We have provided a variety of meetings that are our members are excited to attend and as a result, our September event at EMCOR was another sell out! With that being said, ...

IFMA, GEORGIA TECH & KSU MEET & GREET

Meet IFMA members and FM students at Georgia Tech and Kennesaw State University

Join us for a presentation on
“Lessons Learned: Launching Your FM Career”

Presented by
Ed Rondeau

Ed Rondeau was an experienced Architect and Construction Manager who was working in-house for a corporation when he began his FM career. This presentation will cover the early history of FM and its application to the workplace now. It will review how you can advance your career through seeking FM education through a variety of often free methods. Problems that can wreck your career will be reviewed along with practicing a code of ethics.

Membership Spotlight - KSU student Dan Wurzel

Our Membership Spotlight for October is shining on KSU student Dan Wurzel. A Michigan transplant to Atlanta at age 12, Dan's affiliation with the industry goes back to early beginnings. His mother moved the family here when she founded Environmental Consulting. The company is still based out of Atlanta with almost 200 employees, but the family has all relocated to ...
