

ON TUESDAY, JANUARY 8 . . .

The Atlanta Chapter of the International Facility Management Association will hold its monthly meeting at - LANIER PLAZA - AT THE INTERSECTION OF I-85 North and Monroe Drive. Our program this month:

THE CORPORATE OFFICE FACILITY - A CRITIQUE

Terry Kay - author, columnist, editor and critic - will discuss the impact of the office environment on clerical, technical and professional employees as seen from the layman's viewpoint. All you facility managers, designers, architects, manufacturers and vendors - get ready to defend yourselves. Terry will be expressing some strong opinions - based on extensive experience and observation - about the workplace.

Terry Kay is a native Georgian with eleven years experience with the Atlanta Journal in the Sports Department and as film/theater critic. His novels include "The Year the Lights Came On", "After Eli", for which he received the Dixie Council for Authors and Journalists Best Fiction Award for 1982, and "Dark Thirty", published in September 1984. He has been a visiting lecturer at Emory University, a contributing editor to Georgia Magazine and director of industrial films and The Wits End Players. He has also been a Public Information Department Manager and a PI Account Executive with Walburn & Associates.

Lunch will be served PROMPTLY at 12:00 noon, so please arrive in plenty of time to register. Reservations for this meeting must be made by 2:00 p.m. Friday, January 4. . . . For reservations, please call 496-7863 and ask for Cora Carter. The charge is $12.00 for members and $15.00 for non-members. NO SHOWS WILL BE INVOICED.

See you at 11:45 for what promises to be an enjoyable and instructive discussion.
