lime

origin: Trinidadian meaning: (v) hanging out/socialising in an informal relaxing environment, especially with friends, for example at a party, or on the beach. (n) an event at which liming takes place, e.g. a party. A gathering of people engaged in activities associated with liming. Often qualified using an adjective e.g. big lime.

I admit, I don't have many friends from Trinidad, and none ...
